Work Visa for Subordinate Employment

Entertainment Sector

Citizens of non-EU countries who intend to carry out employment activities in Italy must apply for a work visa and, once they arrive in Italy, must submit an application for a residence permit within 8 working days.

Applicants are invited to download and complete the national visa application form (National Form)

Subordinate work visa – entertainment: The subordinate work visa in the entertainment sector is required for foreign citizens who intend to carry out temporary work activities in Italy within artistic, cultural, or entertainment events, in accordance with current labor and immigration regulations.

The issuance of the visa is subject to authorization from the competent Italian authorities (nulla osta ex ANPAL), as well as the presentation of an employment contract or an agreement with the event organizer or production company.

For the list of required documents, applicants are invited to consult the following checklist.

Please note that the Embassy reserves the right to request additional documentation if deemed necessary.
